To Whom It May Concern,

Re: Vulnerable Sector Police Record Check

This is to inform you that this Laurier student is registered for a community service-learning (CSL) course during the upcoming winter semester at the Brantford campus. As a part of their CSL course, they are required to complete an unpaid placement in a social agency or organization that may serve vulnerable populations. These social agencies and organizations serve populations of all ages, including seniors, children and those with various challenges. Therefore, this student may need to have a vulnerable sector police record check completed prior to beginning the placement. Placements will begin January 2021 and will end April 2021.
